

2018 YNHH APP Week Recognition Awards
Nomination Evaluation Summary Form

Clinical Leader Award

A clinically practicing APP who demonstrates the core elements of leadership and professionalism while maintaining an outstanding clinical practice.

Cindy Guandalini, APRN

Distinguished APP Leader Award

An APP who has successfully developed APP programs/initiatives this year or has spearheaded interdisciplinary collaboration for benevolent gains of patients and staff in their department or service line.

Tracy Gambardella, PA

Clinical Excellence Award

An APP who demonstrates exceptional, expert and compassionate care to their patients.

Ashley Phillips, CRNA

Education Award

An APP who exemplifies the core characteristics of an outstanding educator.

Kristin Sikes, APRN

Humanitarian Award

An APP committed to all that defines the wholeness of the being. Active in community outreach, volunteering in community benefit projects that provide aid and improve the conditions of our communities in line with YNHHS' mission, vision and values.

Evans Simmons, PA

Mentorship Award

An APP who demonstrates ongoing success and excellence in mentoring students, APP colleagues, housestaff and hospital employees.

Audrey Senior, APRN

Publishing Award

A clinically practicing APP who has made advancements to our profession by publishing or implementing their research efforts or quality initiatives to the gain of YNHH patients or staff.

Brennan Bowker, PA

Outstanding Newcomer Award

An APP who has worked at YNHH for less than 2 years and symbolizes the greatness in YNHH employees and demonstrates clinical success by being highly regarded by patients and staff.

Rory Condon, APRN
Therese Gardere, APRN

APP of the Year Award

An APP who embodies the wholeness all the other categories this year; a peer, a leader, a colleague, a mentor, and someone who symbolizes the best of our professions. Please individually address all categories in narrative.

Barbara Stahl, APRN